It All Comes Together At SURFACES. The #1 floor covering event where thousands of industry professionals have the opportunity to see the newest and most innovative products in every category: carpet, tile, hardwood, rugs and laminate, make long-lasting business relationships with leading manufacturers and suppliers and receive top-notch education.

SURFACES 2012 will continue to deliver the products, tools, technology and education that floor covering professionals will require to not only sustain during this challenging economic climate, but grow and profit. SURFACES is again co-locating with StonExpo/Marmomacc Americas, the largest natural stone event in North America. Visit www.surfaces.com for more information.
